

UNIVERSITY OF CALGARY

University of Calgary
Department of Physics and Astronomy

Winter 2012 Sessional Instructor Position Available

The Department of Physics and Astronomy at the University of Calgary is looking to hire a sessional instructor to fill a position as lecturer in one of our undergraduate courses. The position is for the Winter (January - April) 2012 term and is for the following course:

Winter 2012

Physics 223: Introductory Electromagnetism and Thermal Physics

Duties include lecturing, assignment and exam preparation, and grading. Applications are currently being accepted for these positions and should include a cover letter, an up-to-date curriculum vitae, and three letters of reference. Applicants are expected to have a Ph.D. in physics or a related field, with teaching experience considered to be a strong asset. Please submit your application no later than Thursday, Dec 15, in paper or electronic form to:
admin@phas.ucalgary.ca

Cover letter should be addressed to:

Dr. René Plume
Undergraduate Program Director
Department of Physics and Astronomy
Room 605, Science B Building
2500 University Drive NW
Calgary, AB, T2N 1N4

Tel. (403) 220-6906
Fax. (403) 210-8974